Now I say to you, dear children, stay closer to Me As I have always said to you I am like a father waiting for his children And ask me if you need All the times that you have come I have never failed I greet you with so much goodness And remember my words I greet you with a great goodness in your Heart Always come See you soon.

