Let me be like one of you Those who see Me would never say that I am not the truth I am Here as you know You are quiet Because My company will never fail You never forget My scriptures If you do not remember well My writings read them over again Here, as I have always told you, it is the greatest Sanctuary that can exist Because all the scriptures are dictated by Me and even My images are all made by Me When you are in front of My messages you always think that I I am among you And I have also written that here I am until all My Eternity Those who come to see me will reward me great If I want to come I am also present at night Because I give everyone the opportunity to come and visit me Even in front of me to My Tent I say to you: "Go, children, because I have seen you" Be near Me as much as you can, because I am the One who can do all the and things No sanctuary found written My Word Here are My Word and My Image Tell me one thank you Do you see how much I ask? I thank you with so much joy and so much happiness And I will send you with a great blessing Here I always wait for that great people No Me wanted to believe But it is the Lord who must command I have given My people all Myself and I also My Goodness and respect for all Be quiet I will let everyone know that I have never failed in this place And I will be there until all My Eternity Pass a word And tell her that the Lord has called you continuously, because in this place They have never failed Now I greet you with a great blessing And pass it on to all your family members and say to them: "The Lord has sent the blessing to all" Now I leave you Come always See you soon.
