Every time you came you did something very important I always wait for you This place I have blessed it Here I am the Lord who are always present Manifested as I told you I want My Church Here This Tent is more than a church, because I have commanded you, but I am a small thing Here I wait for you continuously day and night If you want to come to see me even in the evening I am present Enlarge My Will Because I have always said: I want Here a great people I wait for you always I am a little cold Always try to obey the Lord Here there are people who see Me Widen more what you see and say that the Lord never fails, I am the people who are missing the Lord Now I tell you, you must follow me. Because I am all things, I thank you for your kindness. I greet you. See you soon.
