

I am He who I am Nobody will be after Me I want to thank you with a great joy in the Heart You few who are for Me You are a great people With me be quiet Because I will not miss anything Those who follow the Lord will always take them with Me Fate come that people that I have always been waiting for So all things will go on We have to do the most important things that can exist See you dear children, as I have always told you, with Me you will not miss anything Because I am the One I am, as I have said, and no one will be after Me Everything that I have told you, you will see, that all things will go forward You see nothing, but I carry on all things Take courage Because before the Lord none will pass I have fed so many people with two loaves and five fishes There are plenty of them coming Come with me I am the way for all I do og What for all I expect you continually When you return home, tell your family: "The Lord has blessed us all, even friends and relatives" Now I greet you with a great blessing. Let me see more than you can See you soon.
