

I want to tell you or dear people, follow me more than you can I am Here This Tent I have commanded it This Tent is more than a Church, as I have told you so many times Here you hear Me and Here you see Me I said: This place must last as long as My Eternity lasts When you can you can also improve and I will help you in everything Now let's move on We have to put into practice all My scriptures, since My writing began My writings as I told you are more than one Bible The apostles have written it The scriptures have been written by Me. More than twenty years there are My scriptures Keep it jealously, as I have told you several times. Here you see Me and hear Me, and you also hear My Mother Now Dear children, do the impossible to bring here a great people As I told you, do not force the people to come and see the Lord must also do the imp I can always wait for you There are some times when you have not seen Me? Here I am always present If you come even the night I am present And ask me what you need, because I will also do the impossible Now I greet you soon.
