

Now I tell you or dear children, every time you have come, I say you dear children, for Me they are a great feast. I want to tell you: Follow me as much as you can, because I have ordered this Tent here. This is the Tent of My Father when He brought with him the chosen people "And I have blessed all here far and wide And I said: Here you must come to find the Lord also all the whole families When you come Here take My home great blessing In this place there are great things Here there are Me and My Mother As you see there are also people who see Me Manifest these things you see Because the things you see Here you do not see them even in the biggest shrines Here you write down all the My words and you also make My images You have to come more numerous, because as I told you, I want A great people here Now I tell you or dear children, as I told you already, keep jealously Keep all My scriptures Because My scriptures are more than a Bible Because in this place You hear Me and see Me If you want to come even in the evening I am always present I greet you and wish you all good Come always See you soon.
