

We must always do the will of the Lord I want to say: Take courage These scriptures dictated by the Father and the Son These messages I will make them reach the end of the world But the people do not even look at them They are within everyone's reach As I told you several times My people get worse all the time But I have made you write, when I can not do it again Dear children, I say to you: Look carefully at all My scriptures My scriptures is a great teaching But I said: Be careful Be careful because I have also said When I can not do it any more I expect everything And I have always said to you: Never neglect My scriptures My writings is more than twenty years that I write the messages for all But the people are few people that takes into account My messages I have written all that My people must know Now I leave you with My greatest blessing I greet you See you soon.
