

I tell you or dear children, you must follow me I am among you as one of you There are People here who see Me Tell My people That I stand Here a great multitude of people In this place I have been present for so many years I say: Every word that I have made you write is My Most Holy Truth You have the book and many other messages There are twenty years of messages You have to announce My word and My images Because every time there are seven eight people who see Me who see Me, in the message, can also put My image I am alive and true like that painting That picture was taken through a light, to a boy Here are people who see Me and even My Mother Those who see Me, below My writing, also puts My image These scriptures and the image go far, because they are sent by the Internet Do you believe all of these words? I know that everyone has answered yes I thank you so much Do the impossible to convey My words and My images Now I greet you I thank you with a great blessing And with the Hand I pass over each of you I salute you Come always See you soon.
