

I tell you or dear children, you must follow Me I am Who I am Nobody will be after Me Follow My way My way, with that road you can never lose Once, in My street, there was a man who was long for earth I said to him: "Stand up son I was poor as you stand up, come with Me, let us be company" I accompanied him from an inn And I even gave him some money And I said to him: "Treat him well When I review I will give you more "After a long time I went back to that inn and I asked him:" Where am I the one who accompanied me? "The innkeeper replied:" He was fine and went to work "I said "Thank you" to that innkeeper And tomorrow I will do the same, for those I will meet on the street Dear children Do likewise yourselves And help the needy I tell you: What you do for the needy you have done to Me And I will give you back everything, even the surplus This people should listen to My teachings Because I will put you to the great test Those who will not do what I command you, think about it

I greet you with great joy in the heart You have lost a very good person Try to remember it with a prayer I salute you See you soon.
