

I tell you or dear children We have come near the feast of the Lord I tell you We must go forward My way is endless I think dear children that those who follow Me for so many years have almost never failed I see them, they are all happy, because it is I who carry them forward You have to follow the Lord Come here for many years and nobody says I'm tired This little people have never complained I'm going to make this journey to reward You've already been twenty years There are those who do not have I am never here I am Here until the last of My Eternity And those who come to see Me if they do not see Me I will feel My Presence When we make the Lord's feast say it to some other person, "because the Lord is among us" and I accept so much that feast next Sunday we make a prayer for those people who are far from the Lord I said: "I vogue them I'm all with Me " Now I greet you or dear children And I pass with My Hand on each of you And you will bring home the great blessing of the Lord I greet you Soon.
