

I tell you, dear children, you must follow me with all your strength. This journey is the greatest thing you can do. As I have told you many times I accompany you in every step you take. Never think that you are alone I will always be with you all Today I want to tell you for the Sunday of My party Do it in a week or two Agree now I tell you with Me you can also go to the end of the world Because I am your way and your strength When we have done this journey, when you return to you will always say: I do not tell you anything else, because I know what you want to say. I always follow you, as I told you, every step you take I say to you: take heart and we always follow our path. Today I am happy because I am so happy so much happiness As I told you, I wish it to you too. Now I greet you soon.
