

All the people I expected, we have reduced less and less I thank you the same You need to think, as I told you, Qua is the largest sanctuary that can exist Why do you see me and hear me I tell you You do not have to think of certain things because I know all my people I've told you so many times that I am present And ask me what you need What are my Mother and Me And I always look for that great people If I'm not the Lord for all it means there are others Of Gentlemen I Am Not All For All Make Clearness to Mind and Heart, so My People Will Understand The Great Truth As I told you, keep all my scriptures

Did you want to know what Sunday was you wanting to party with Me But today you are few and can not decide Let's go further And thank you for your presence I told you many times: Re-read My Writings so you will realize My Great Will Thank you I greet you soon.
