

We all must go forward The Lord says: "We must all do His Will" My path is endless Those who follow us for twenty years have never failed And instead there are those who say: He has no time, He has no time I I say that God has made the time for all things Always follow My way You will see that you will never regret Here there is a very great thing: Feel My Word and see My images These things are not there even in the greatest shrines Porterete At home My Word and My images Pass my words to all the family and friends and relatives If you read My book I wrote all the things Read it often When you read My book you are before Me and I in front of you Look for me what you need You will see that I will never fail Tell My people and I continually wait for the great people that come and go, without stopping Do pilgrimages because I want a great people before Me I wish you happy for your presence and I give you everything you need We must think of our way, because we are following the path of the Lord I am Here before you As I told you, wherever you want to go, I am always ahead of you

Now I leave you Always keep My Words in mind, because My Words come from the Father and the Son I greet you with great joy in the Heart Come always See you soon.
