

Every time you came, I tell you, do the impossible But if you do not hear it, it sometimes does nothing You know, I always expect you I tell you Always mandate My messages Why I to those who do not He wants to believe me, he will show me that the Lord is I know him When he comes to that point everyone wants to come But if it is too late no longer I tell you dear children You who come for so long, how do you feel? Do you feel weird? Because I, those who come to Me, I will send him the greatest joy that may exist You are always close to Me And you will never feel tired I will do the impossible to help you The matine you have to come and say always "I always came This day "" Thank you children "And so do you with Me: A small thank you Maybe I ask you too much? I know All of you are happy with My Company Because I see you come so joyfully And I thank you again And I greet you with all My Heart Come Always soon.
