

We have to observe all My words I say to you dear children, do not listen to people who lead you astray Because the Lord says: "I am your way" I have put everything in writing Search for My scriptures And you will find all that you need The person who hears My words is commanded by God I have spent twenty years And you will find all My scriptures written The book and all the messages are more than a Bible Because you hear Me and see Me In front of My image Everyone must bow Those who does not want I will bend them with all My strength So they will have to say: "It is the fault of My injustice" Here, under this Tent, I am more than a Shrine. Because You see Me and hear Me I tell you dear children, you have made this pilgrimage because I asked you this And I tell you If you want to do it again I wait for You Because Here are the Lord in Person and also My Mother If there are anyone who does not want to believe ask those who see So the blame will fall on those who do not want to believe So I tell you All will receive a fair pay I salute you little people And I wish you all you want If you need of Me present yourselves in My Tent and I say to you: "Go children because I have seen you" Here there is an immense thing There are people who have been following Me for more than twenty years Now I tell you: Follow me Do not listen to unjust people For the unjust ones will receive I give you my just pay Now I leave you And I greet you with so much joy in the Heart And I pass with My Hand on each of you So you will bring home the greatest blessing of the Lord And pass it on to all the family, friends and relatives See you soon.
