Now I say to you, dear children, you must always do My obedience I am Here among you For Me this Tent is more than a church I was the one who wanted it I repeat again: Here I want My Church like that of My Father when he brought the people chosen in the promised lands I greet you with a big wish for a good Sunday. I greet you and thank you soon.

