I tell you, dear children, you must follow My Will. I wanted to tell you something. You see, you can't trust anyone. He took away all the scriptures and everything else. Today, I put you in writing: "Keep My writings always., the people do not present themselves to hear the Lord, but to take everything away they present themselves "They have taken all the important things I will do, however, so that My scriptures go forward the same But it cannot come to the house of each one of you I recommend to you My scriptures As I told you Here I am the Greatest Shrine that can exist Because you see and hear Me There are not even in the greatest sanctuaries so many people that Here They see Me I wanted to tell You See Also here They have come to steal But all you have My scriptures Do not fear, for I will do so, those who do these things will repent bitterly I greet you or little people Let us go on. I greet you soon.
