

I tell you or dear children, you must follow Me I wait for you as you know I say: "Behold My beloved children" Whenever you have come I have done for you My great will You have all received a great gift from Me. My great gift I thank you dear children We are few But I am happy the same My people say that it has no time The Lord, for those people, it is because it does not respect the Lord I told you other times These messages I hope it reflects us a little 'Cause without the Lord the road does not continue Dear children Try to follow me I am the Force, I am the Goodness, I am Everything you need When you read My scriptures ask me if you need As I told you, I will I hear through My scriptures And even when you pray Because the Lord has commanded the prayer Since you have always come I bless you or with My Most Holy Heart And pass it on to your relatives and friends and relatives It is the Lord who command for friends and relatives. Be brave. Because I always accompany you, wherever you have to go. Greetings. See you soon.
