I tell you or dear children, Here are My image and that of My Mother You must think that I am present continuously Here I wanted a great people But for the Lord he says he has no time It is the Lord who does all things The people must believe to present themselves before Me. But when his time comes he says: "O Lord! O Lord! "I have always been there and I will be there for all Eternity Do more and more as much as you can to come before Me

I greet you as always, passing with My Hand over each one of you. Now I greet you with all My Goodness and My Greatness to you soon.
