

I say to you or a small people, you are always close to me, because I'm all about doing things Most people are getting away more and more But I'll always show you the Great Truth No one should go away from the Lord When he got to the point he would want coming with the Lord is too late My Writings, most do not even read them Why do you say that I am not the Lord Now I tell you dear children, for all we have done I thank you so much And we will do everything we write Everything is My Great Will It takes a little effort But be quiet When it comes time to come nobody has the courage to pull you back I thank you so much One day, those who have pulled back, will regret Make yourself courageous because I'm here with you My Seers will Always Announce My Presence This is a time to pray a bit more There are too much evil in the world I had written, "When do not you expect me to wait for everything" Now I leave you Dear children I greet you, passing with My Hand above each of you Come Always soon.
