Now I tell you or dear children, do not worry, because I here are all the moments of My life In this place I have been so long that I am present This Tent has been commanded by Me It was long since I asked for this Tent And I also said that I want Here My Church You will see, it takes time, but here My Church will always arise Because it is the Lord who commands You have to think to bring here a great people And tell them that I am here continuously, even at night My Mother, too, Listen to those who see Me For several years there are those who see Me And if you need Me, ask me, because I will do the impossible to help You have to think about the important things and Who is speaking Your presence I have been for many years and I bless you with a great blessing Take courage As I have always told you, try to bring here a great people And I say to you: You must follow Me, because I am Here as one of you And listen to those who see Me I am Here many years before since I had My Tent built And take courage Because this is a great path for all Now I tell you Tutt 'now that you want to come I am already waiting for you. The Lord is always waiting for you. You must always think of My words. Now I greet you. See you soon.

