

I want to say, My presence Here the people respect her when she has nothing to do She behave in a certain way, she believes that the Lord is her giver Respect the Lord according to her comfort Stay calm Because I am the absolute patron of all things will not pass on to the Lord Those who follow My way must do it with much respect and with so much faith I have written many times that the people should reflect on these things Now I tell you Take the case to the folks who follow from many years And then the people will realize I wrote all things, by thread and by sign Even a child I could understand If the Lord repeated the same things many times are always for the same reason Make yourself courage And respect my law Why Every law is done with much detail My law, I want them to respect Why I, for My people, have given all I am always in the midst of you Now I greet you dear children Always reflect on my scriptures There is nothing missing in my scriptures I now greet you dear children with so much joy in the Heart And I step with My Hand above each one You always come See you soon.
