

Now I tell you or dear children, do not think of anything, I am with you I am the Father of all the children of the world If you need to ask Me, I will do the impossible for those who ask Me Also through the scriptures This journey I have commanded him for all peoples. But no one has done what I asked for. I wanted a great people here. I thank you dear children. Because I told you, I here are also for one person, as I have told you at other times. , come also at night, I am always present As I told you, I have been in this place for a long time Many years before I had this Tent built up Because there are those who felt My Presence and also My words Built the chapel , after having built the little chapel, the Madonna with the Child came to visit Apparsa la Madonna to a
..... I tell you: Do not worry about My words, it's not all, you can also keep them alone I always wait for you But I said I wanted a multitude of people This multitude did not want to believe But I will do so, when in the end, those who did not want to believe, I will make them regret bitterly because no one must allow certain things But the time comes that I will make them regret bitterly to those who he says: "Do you still go there?" As long as those who come do something very unjust Do not worry But I will make sure they will realize Those who come under this Tent I bless them to everyone, even the family members And I said also: "Spend the blessing to everyone And tell her also that the Lord has blessed everyone" I greet you or dear children You are like the apostles of the past for me The apostles always came, not They never left me alone Do you so too Because I am before you And I pass with My Hand on each of you And I give you the greatest blessing I salute you See you soon.
