I tell you or dear children, always come before Me As I told you I am like a father waiting for his children Now I greet you with a great joy in the Heart All you have to do My Will Here I am always among you Not never miss For Me I will be there even for one person I thank you so much I say: People come from afar, but those of the place are not nobody But I said: But those who want to come are always too late I greet you Thank you Always come soon Amen.

