Dear people, today I tell you so many important things You have to be calm, because I am that I carry you You do not have to worry about the small things I always do everything you need Come on I always expect a great company Do not despair for the little things, because there are I that I worry about all things Think always that I am always close to all peoples And I will do the impossible for all Because I will always be my promises I will tell you: Follow me always Do not miss me of nothing When you are with Me you will bring the greatest blessing of the Lord at home And tell your family members: "The Lord has said that awaits you all" Those who say that I am not the truth, even go to the head of the world to meet me, they will never meet me Because I did this tent, because I expect a great people Qua You hear me and see me This must and say to the people that you can Have courage I always accompany you wherever I send you With my messages I am always present Now I greet you with great joy in the Heart Come Always soon.

