You must think of My Most Holy Will I am Here in front of you Always think that you are in front of Me Only the one that makes you remember all things I greet you dear children for all you do for Me How I tell you you are My apostles like those of the past I greet you and thank you soon.

