

Whenever you have come, as I have always told you, I am waiting for you. Do some pilgrimage when you can When you make some pilgrimage for Me it is a big party. Because I always wait for a great people. Also bring some young people and children. I always want to tell you a great thing Because here there is a great Shrine I am that I have commanded this Tent But this Tent must be transformed into a Church And everyone will have to participate Even those of other nations, because all are children of God I wait for you always do the impossible because I always want a great people make these messages circulate far and wide because the other nations must also come to find the Lord I greet you or little people When I see you I say: "Here comes My children" Try to widen the Will of the Lord I greet you See you soon.

Thank you so much or little people.
