Now I say to you, dear people, I am here before you. You must obey My Will. This Tent for Me is the greatest Church that can exist. You must obey My Will. Because I want My Church to manifest My Will for long and long. largo The other nations must also come I always wait for you Do the impossible And I always ask you for a great will I am Here as you know day and night Now I leave you with great joy in the Heart I greet you See you soon.
